

“Migrants and Homelands”

Dynamics of Networks and Communication

November 10, 2006

9:30-17:30

Kyoto University Clock Tower Centennial Hall
Conference Room IV

This Satellite Workshop, in combination with one of the Main Symposium Panels entitled “The Construction of Migrants’ Social Spaces: Issues of Mobility, Locality, and Trans-Border Networks” will focus on the bilateral relations between migrants and their homelands and discuss the associated dynamic changes of societies and regions.

Moderator : WANG Liulan, Kyoto Univ.

HOSODA Naomi, Kyoto Univ.

9:30-10:10

“The Construction of an Imagined ‘Village’ in an African City: The Case of the Bamiléké of Cameroon”

NOMOTO Misa, The International University of Kagoshima

10:10-10:50

“Marrying in a Foreign Land? A Case Study of a Muslim Community in Manila, Philippines”

WATANABE Akiko, Kyoto Univ.

10:50-11:30

“Creating New ‘Homes’ on the Outskirts of the Resettlement Site: Alternative Settlement Behavior among the Resettled San Hunter-Gathers”

MARUYAMA Junko, Kyoto Univ.

11:30-13:00 Lunch

13:00-13:40

“The Construction of Haw Muslim Identities in Northern Thailand”

Suchart Setthamalinee, Payap Univ.

/ University of Hawai’i at Manoa

13:40-14:20

“Going to the Metropolis and Building Leadership in the Homeland: A Case Study of Palau, Micronesia”

IITAKA Shingo, Tokyo Metropolitan Univ.

14:20-15:00

“Remittances and Transnational Social Space”
SHIBUYA Tsutomu, Tohoku Univ.

15:00-15:20 Coffee Break

15:20-16:00

“Hawaii’s Okinawan Migritude and Museums”
SHIROTA Chika, Oita Prefectural College of Arts and Culture

16:00-16:40

“Constructing the Emigrant’s Village in Transnational Social Space: The Experience of Papua New Guinean Chinese”

ICHIKAWA Tetsu, National Museum of Ethnology

16:40-17:30 Discussion