

This Satellite Workshop will examine how pastoralists of various ecological, historical, political, and economic backgrounds have responded to modernization and globalization, and will discuss the potential and future of nomadic pastoralism in Eurasia and Africa.

Time	Speaker	Title
10:00-10:05	OHTA Itaru [Kyoto Univ.]	Welcoming address
10:05-10:15	NAITO Naoki [Kyoto Univ.]	Opening remarks
Session 1: Sedentarization, Commercialization, and Pastoralists' management of their Livestock and natural resources.
10:15-10:45	Maria E. Fernandez-Gimenez [Colorado State Univ.]	Climate, Economy, and Land Polycy: Effects on Pastoral Mobility Patterns in Mongolia
10:45-11:15	SUN Xiaogang [Kyoto Univ.]	Pastoralists' Potential and Challenge to Development: A Case Study of The Rendille in Northern Kenya
11:15-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-12:00	KAZATO Mari [Kyoto Univ.]	Management and Evaluation of Livestock under Socialist Collectivization in Mongolia
12:00-12:30	WATANABE Kazuyuki [Ritsumeikan Univ.]	Pastoralism among the Household Economy: A Case of Sheep Herders of East Nepal
12:30-14:00	Lunch time
Session 2: Redefining Ethnic Identities and Reorganizing Social Relations of Pastoral Societies under National and Global changes.
14:00-14:30	Martin Falkenstein	Ethnicity and Migration among The Ariaal, Kenya
14:30-15:00	TAGAWA Gen [Hiroshima City Univ.]	Transformation of an age system of Borana-Oromo people of Southern Ethiopia: Social Changes of a Pastoral Society with its Incorporation into a Modern State
15:00-15:15	Coffee break
15:15-15:45	TAKAKURA Hiroki [Tohoku Univ.]	Newly emerged independent herder and the horse trust system among Sakha agro-pastoralists in Siberia: socio-economic conditions in the post-socialist era
15:45-16:15	Jon Holtzman [Western Michigan Univ.]	Spatial-Temporal Discourses in Samburu, Northern Kenya: Manifest Destiny, Quantum Development and the Economy of Appearances
16:15-16:30	Coffee break
16:30-16:50	KAMIMURA Akira [Tokyo Univ. of Foreign Studies] SOGA Toru [Hirosaki Univ.]	Comments
16:50-17:50	General Discussion: Mobility, Flexibility, and Potential of Pastoralism.
17:50-18:00	NAKAMURA Kyoko [Kyoto Univ.]	Closing Remarks

Photo Exhibition

Photo Exhibition: Resonance of Pastoral Lives in Eurasia and Africa

Place: International Conference Hall III, Kyoto University Clock Tower

Date: November 10 - 13, 2006

lease register online. <http://areainfo.asafas.kyoto-u.ac.jp/kyotosympo/registration/form.html>